

How long does data need to be kept on the phone for?

Assumption: For the maximum time being able to infect and getting a positive test result back, and then sharing your data with the NHS

Thus minimum time we must hold: 28 days (+2 to take account of testing delay due to testing at peak capacity)